

Interferogram of Hector Mine 7.1 M Earthquake. One fringe corresponds to 28 mm of ground displacement away from the radar. SyntheticAperture Radar data are from the European Space Agency Satellite ERS-2 satellite. Data were acquired at Scripps Institution of Oceanography/IGPP on 20 October. Real-Time Orbits were provided by Delft University and the ground station was built by SeaSpace Co. and SIO.

23027_23528

