

Postseismic LOS displacement between day 4 and 245 after the October 16, 1999, Hector Mine Earthquake (10 mm interval).

Synthetic Aperture Radar data are from the European Space Agency Satellite ERS-2 satellite. Data were acquired at Scripps Institution of Oceanography/IGPP on 26 June, 2000. Real-Time Orbits were provided by Delft University and the ground station was built by SeaSpace Co. and SIO.