

Comparisons of vector deformation from ALOS interferometry with highly accurate 3 GPS vector displacements derived from continuous measurements surrounding Kilauea (red triangles previous figures). LOS errors are typically 14 mm rms while the displacement derived from pixel matching has an rms error of 70 mm.